

I feel that this proposal if made into law will result in more interference to the Amatuer bands and we know that there is enough there already.